

Pennypacker Mills presents

Senior Social

Weds., September 7th

Thurs., September 8th

Fri., September 9th

1 to 3 pm Fee: $3/Senior

“Emergency Men” were called upon to defend Pennsylvania during the Gettysburg Campaign of the Civil War, including 20-year old Samuel Pennypacker. Women also provided support to soldiers by sending food and clothing. Meet a Civil War reenactor each day who will talk about life during the Civil War, either as a civilian or a soldier.

Refreshments served during the program. Stay afterward and take a guided tour of the Pennypacker mansion to view Civil War artifacts and see the exhibit on Pennypacker’s legacy.

Individuals, assisted living & senior centers welcome to attend. Contact the site to pre-register for this special program. Aides & bus drivers Free. Handicap drop off closer to the mansion available. Please mention to the site when registering.

Pennypacker Mills

5 Haldeman Road Schwenksville, PA 19473

610-287-9349

Pennypacker Mills is operated by the Montgomery County Division of Parks, Trails & Historic Sites. Montgomery County Commissioners: Josh Shapiro, Chair Valerie Arkoosh, MD, MPH, Vice Chair Joseph C. Gale, Commissioner